CINCINNATI, July 1.—The directors of the Ohlo and Mississippi railway held a secret here Saturday. CHICAGO June 30.—The townses statement.

CHICAGO, June 30 .- The tonnage statement CHICAGO, June 30.—The tonnage statement of last week was a surprise to shippers, but the showing for this week is beyond the expectation of any one. Flour has increased 621 tons. Shipments of grain have decreased 3,274 tons, low grade corn having gone largely by lake. Provisions have nearly doubled, increasing 7,675 tons, lard being the most important factor in the tonnage, showing that the joint agent is making divisions among the need lines in order to keen each road within pool lines in order to keep each road within its percentage. For the coming week con-tracts have already been made for heavy shipments of lard.

St. Louis, June 30 —It is now authoritatively known that an agreement between the Grand Trunk, Baltimore and Ohio, and Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific railways, whereby the latter road extends its line from Annhur, Junetion to Chicago, and from De-Auburn Junction to Chicago, and from De-troit to Suspension bridge and Buffalo, form-ing a through line for its castern business, has been finally consummated, and to-day the general officials of the three roads went over the part of the new route composed of the Baltimore and Ohio from Chicago to Auburn and Wabash from Auburn to Detroit. The track is said to be in splendid condition, per-mitting rapid time, and the route is shorter than any other between the two points. The line will be open for passenger business on July 9. It is understood that freight busi-ness will be initiated at an early day.

An Interesting Legal Question.
WHEELING, W. VA., June 30.—An important decision was rendered in the supreme court of this state to-day involving a quescourt of this state to-day involving a question of the state's rights. The case grew out of the death of John White, who was killed on the Chesapeake and Ohio railway in 1881, and whose administrator sued the company for $15,000 damages in the circuit court of Greenbrier county. In the succeeding term of the court counsel for the Chesapeake and Ohio made a motion to transfer the case to the United States district court.

The motion was resisted by the plaintiff, and the court decided the case not removable on the ground that the motion should have

At the following term it was stated that the case had been tried in the United States court, and could not be heard in the Greenbrier county court. Judge Holt decided that the case could not be heard. A short time afterward application was made to the supreme court for a mandames compelling the circuit judge. application was made to the supreme court for a mandamus compelling the circuit judge to hear the case. Meantime Judge Jackson, of the United States court, issued an order re-straining the administrator from prosecuting his claim in the supreme court of this state. Low Church Whis.

He awards and injunction restraining the defendants from in-terfering with the complainant in the dis-charge of their duties as vestrymen.

charge of their duties as vestrymen.

The low church vestrymen entered upon their duties to-day. A meeting was held and a series of charges drafted against Rev. Henry R. Percival, the rector, alleging that he has violated the canons of the church in the introduction of ceremonies foreign to the laws of the Protestant Episcopal faith. The charges will be presented to Rt. Rev. Bishop Stevens, who is clothed with the power to remove the rector, if he considers that he has violated the precepts of the church.

Six long and exciting falls were wrestled and Dennis Gallagher, a Buffalo man, surprised his friends by winning two falls from well known athletes. The score stood as follows: Ross won three falls; Gallagher won two falls; Thompson won one fall; Ross lost one fall; Thompson lost two fall; Ross lost one fall; Thompson lost two falls; Curran lost one fall; Steadman lost one fall; Gallagher won a fall from Ross in forty minutes and the contest was very exciting. Suffocated by Black Damp.

SCHANTON, PA., June 30 .- John Nolcott, of Moosic; David McCowan, of West Pittston, and William Barnes, of Hyde Park, were suffocated with black damp this morning at a well near Lackawanna. Nolcott looked into the well for some unknown rea-son, when he became insensible and fell to the bottom, a distance of forty feet. Mc-Cowan and Barnes, missing Nolcott, looked into the well to see what had become of him, and were also overpowered. Bellows were used in forcing the foul air out of the well, and about noon the bodies were recovered.

The Interest Will Be Paid. NEW ORLEANS. July 1 .- There is not sufficient money in the state treasury to the credit of the interest fund to pay the July interest on the state bonds, but the fiscal agent will advance the additional sum necessary and the interest will be promptly paid. The change in the Fox law made by the last legislature has caused some delay in the collection, but local capitalists are so well satisfied with the financial condition of the state that they cheerfully advance the funds required to meet maturing obligations.

He Wasn't Killed at All.

RICHMOND, VA., June 30 .- There is no foundation for the report, telegraphed hence on the twenty-fifth instant, that Col. B. L. Farrinholt, of Essex county, Va., was killed by a blacksmith in that county with a sledge hammer. A letter has been received here from Col. Farrinholt deprecating the publi-cation of the item. The information was re-ceived from a highly respectable physician of King William county, and it was deemed thoroughly authentic.

A Clergyman's Death.

Rev. Cato Ward, for the past fifteen years a preacher and pastor of churches in the A. M. E. conference, died yesterday at the age of 61. He was in many respects an extraordinary man. He was born a slave in Fairfax county, Virginia, being owned by a Mr. Fitzhugh. When the latter died his will gave freedom to Mr. Ward twenty years after. As soon as freed Mr. Ward came to Washington, where he has remained ever since. He was an earnest, cloquent, hard working follower of the Master, and labored successfully in the moral vineyard.
